QVATTVORVIRIS, ET DECVRIONIBVS MVNICIPII MONTANEANENSIS.

Franciscus Stiunorius. S. P. D.

Vadio nonnullos esse, qui me non leuiter carpant, & officiorum numeros parum aptè obseruare me dicant: quòd cum aliquos mei ingenij fatus in arte Musica alias ediderim, eos potius alijs, quàm vobis dicarim: cum ijs potissimum, apud quos vitam ago, & à quibus diligere me sentio, iure debeantur. Ergo, & si qui hæc dictitant, idcirco id faciunt, quod causas, quæ me impulerint, ignorent; tamen, vt omnis obloquendi tollatur occasio, volui nunc, cum in eo genere nonnulla concinnassem, quibus diuina laudes concinuntur, ea vobis Viri Magnifici, & Optimi inscribere; vt non presentibus solum, sed & posteris etiam (si voces tamen nostræ ad posteros transibunt) mea erga vos obseruantia fidem faterentur: & vos quicquid mihi, & mei similibus tribuitis, non ingratis hominibus tribuere intelligeretis. Accipite ergo quicquid illud est, quod datur, animo benigno: & maiores etiam in posterum, si Musarum numina adspirabunt, voluntatis nostræ notas expectate. Valete.

A single musical staff in C major, starting with a treble clef and a common time signature. The melody begins with a half note G4, followed by quarter notes A4, B4, and C5. After a whole rest, it continues with quarter notes B4, A4, and G4, followed by another whole rest. The final measure contains a dotted half note E4.

The first system of the musical score is written on a single five-line staff. It begins with a treble clef and a flat key signature (B-flat). The notation consists of a series of diamond-shaped notes, some of which are beamed together. There are also some notes with stems pointing downwards. The system ends with a double bar line.
